The Property

Located in the heart of Stratford upon Avon town centre, ideally positioned to take advantage of the countless attractions and amenities at hand, this attached period home boasts a wealth of character and also enjoys a generous garden and a highly sought after garage. Being offered with no upward chain, the accommodation comprises;

A reception hall with flagstone flooring, exposed brickwork, and doorways off. There are three reception rooms in all, including a cosy sitting room with feature fire and bespoke shelving, formal dining room, with feature fireplace and a generous light filled garden room. The kitchen is well appointed with a comprehensive range of storage, complimented by solid wood worksurfaces over and space for whitegoods. There is tiled flooring throughout and access to the garden to side. A cellar provides useful additional storage, or potential for conversion if required.

To the first floor, a central landing provides access to three bedrooms and the house bathroom. The main bedroom also enjoys an en-suite shower room.

Externally, the property benefits from a generous enclosed garden, filled with an array of mature shrubs, trees and plants, helping to provide a secluded feel and leafy backdrop. Paved terracing also provides the perfect place to enjoy alfresco dining in the summer months. To the front of the property, a single garage with light and power can be accessed via remote electrically operated doors to front.

The Location

Stratford-upon-Avon is internationally famous as the birthplace of William Shakespeare and home to the Royal Shakespeare Theatre. It attracts almost four million visitors a year who come to see its rich variety of historic buildings. Stratford is also a prosperous riverside market town which provides South Warwickshire with a wide range of national and local stores, fine restaurants, a good choice of public and private schools and excellent sporting and recreational amenities. These include golf courses, swimming pool and leisure centre, race course, the nearby north Cotswold Hills as well as the River Avon for anglers and boating enthusiasts.

The town is well served by trunk road/motorway and rail communications with regular train services to Birmingham Moor Street and London Marylebone (via Warwick Parkway/Leamington Spa stations), whilst junction 15 of the M40 motorway is situated within about 15 minutes drive. Birmingham International Airport, the National Exhibition and Agricultural Centres and International Convention Centre are all located in under one hour's travel whilst other well known business centres including Warwick & Leamington Spa, Coventry, Evesham, Redditch and Solihull are all readily accessible.

In line with The Money Laundering Regulations 2007 we are duty bound to carry out due diligence on all of our clients to confirm their identity. Rather than traditional methods in which you would have to produce multiple utility bills and a photographic ID we use an electronic verification system. This system allows us to verify you from basic details using electronic data, however it is not a credit check of any kind so will have no effect on you or your credit history. You understand that we will undertake a search with Experian for the purposes of verifying your identity. To do so Experian may check the details you supply against any particulars on any database (public or otherwise) to which they have access. They may also use your details in the future to assist other companies for verification purposes. A record of the search will be retained.

VaughanReynolds, for themselves and for the vendors of the property whose agents they are, give notice that these particulars do not constitute any part of a contract or offer, and are produced in good faith and set out as a general guide only. The vendor does not make or give, and neither VaughanReynolds nor any person in their employment, has an authority to make or give any representation or warranty whatsoever in relation to this property.
