Architectural detail is at the heart of this home. A carefully curated palette of reclaimed materials ensures character and authenticity, with stone mullion and Crittall-style windows, oak and flagstone floors, and large inglenook fireplaces. Bathrooms are by Porcelanosa, with limestone tiled walls and a roll-top bath, while bay windows and vaulted proportions create a sense of light and grandeur throughout.

At the centre of the house lies the bespoke oak kitchen, appointed with granite worksurfaces, a three-oven Aga with companion, Belfast sink, integrated appliances, and a breakfast bar. Bi-fold doors open directly onto the walled garden, seamlessly blending indoor and outdoor living. A dual-aspect drawing room, with an impressive stone fireplace, and a separate dining room framed by a stone mullion bay window provide refined formal living spaces.

Upstairs, the principal suite enjoys rearward views, bespoke wardrobes, and a luxurious en suite bathroom. A second bedroom also features fitted storage and an en suite shower room, while three further double bedrooms are served by a well-appointed family bathroom with both bath and separate shower.

The annexe, set over two floors with its own entrance, includes an open-plan living/kitchen breakfast room with bi-fold doors to the garden, and a first-floor double bedroom with en suite shower room — ideal for extended family, guests, or independent living.

Externally, the property continues to impress. A detached triple garage with workshop provides excellent ancillary space, while the landscaped gardens are designed for entertaining, with expansive lawns, mature planting, and countryside views. A paddock, enclosed by post and rail fencing, adds to the rural appeal and versatility of the home.

Tucked away at the end of a private shared driveway, Underwood House enjoys a semi-rural position only 2.4 miles from Stratford-upon-Avon. The town offers a wealth of shopping, leisure, and cultural amenities, complemented by an excellent selection of restaurants and highly regarded schools. Further facilities can be found in Warwick and Leamington Spa, while swift access to the M40, rail links from Warwick Parkway, and Birmingham International Airport ensure excellent connectivity.

Underhill House represents a rare opportunity to acquire a distinctive country property that blends traditional craftsmanship, modern comfort, and a privileged setting within striking distance of one of England's most historic market towns.
