Being set back from the road in a discreet, leafy setting, you approach the property via double brick pillars and a sweeping gravel drive, leading to an extensive forecourt parking and turning area. The detached garage block is located to one side and comprises four bays with the option of opening doors to the front. (Planning permission has been granted for a replacement garage block with ancillary accommodation above. Planning reference 20/01075/FUL).

The property is partially hidden beyond a walled frontage, with central walkway which leads to a delightful inner courtyard garden. The wings of the property enclose this space and a central path leads to the main entrance.

Entering through a contemporary front door, you are greeted by an inviting reception hall with feature glazing to rear, framing the amazing views, oak staircase to the upper floor and glazed doors off.

The generous sitting room is large, yet cosy, with dual aspect windows, door to the courtyard and built in storage. The dining room is an equally appealing space with dual aspect bi folding doors providing an open flow from inside to both the formal gardens and enclosed courtyard

The heart of this home is without doubt, the truly inspiring open plan family kitchen and principal living space. This impressive room has a double height vaulted ceiling and is filled with natural light through a glazed atrium to rear and bifold doors to side.

There are three zones that help enhance versatility, currently utilised as a relaxed seating area, dining space and kitchen. Another key focal point is a modern cylindrical log burner.

The kitchen is beautifully appointed with a comprehensive range of storage with timeless, classic shaker door fronts and granite worksurfaces over. There is a range cooker and American fridge/freezer and the island also serves as a breakfast bar for occasional dining. This amazing space will encourage a more sociable way of living. From here, you can access a large boot room and utility.

The well-appointed main bathroom is nearby and has a modern white suite comprising free-standing bath, WC, wash hand basin in vanity unit and stylish tiles and décor.

There are three, generous double bedrooms to the ground floor, located within a dedicated wing. The main bedroom features a glazed atrium to rear and ensuite shower room. A guest bedroom with generous en-suite and access to the courtyard garden, and a third double with an equally well appointed en-suite. The fourth bedroom is located to the first floor and could serve a multitude of purposes depending on a buyers needs. This is accompanied by a large landing with office space

Externally, the property sits well within its formal gardens that surround all four sides, helping to provide the feeling of space and privacy. Lawns extend outwards from the rear of property, drawing your attention to the breath-taking views towards Stratford and beyond, capturing sight of the Holy Trinity Church and Welcombe Hills Obelisk.

There is an area of woodland to side, making for the perfect nature retreat or activity space for children, with its winding pathways that lead out to the adjoining paddock. For those wishing to utilise the land for more agricultural purposes, or possibly those with an equine interest, there is separate gated access to the road, avoiding the need to enter the property via the main driveway. In all, the plot extends to an impressive 6.64 acres, or thereabouts.
